CLASS 3'S ANGLO SAXON TOPIC

These amulets and clay pots were made recently as part of Class 3's Anglo-Saxon topic. Pottery was one of the jobs that Anglo-Saxons would have done, and the children enjoyed making some pots and amulets. Anglo-Saxons were originally pagans, who wore amulets as a symbol of good fortune.

To end their topic, Class 3 invited some children from Class 4 to come to their 'museum exhibit' where they showcased some of their amulets, clay pots, information leaflets, gods and goddesses posters and work from their topic books. Class 3 loved showing Class 4 what they had been learning and the things they had made!

HERBIE'S HIDDEN HOARD OF EASTER EGGS

Thank you to everyone who took part in the Herbie's Hidden Hoard of Easter Eggs competition run by the PTA. The lucky pupil who found where Herbie's Hoard was hidden was ADRIANNA from Class 3! Congratulations to Adrianna, and we hope you enjoy those lovely eggs. What a lucky girl!
